

Galería de autores

Evi Fitriani

Evi is a senior lecturer of the the International Relations Department, Faculty of Social and Political Sciences, Universitas Indonesia (Dept. HI FISIP UI) and the Head of the Department from 2012 to 2016. She is co-founder of the University's Master Program of European Studies as well as the ASEAN Study Center of FISIP UI. She is also the Indonesian Country Coordinator of the Network of East Asian Think-tanks (NEAT). She obtained her PhD from the Australian National University (ANU) in 2011 on Political Sciences and International Relations. She was educated and trained in international relations in Indonesia, the UK, and the USA, as well as in Japan, Sweden, the Netherlands, and Hungary. Over the last 25 years, she has involved in international collaborative research or projects and obtained more than 13 international awards or scholarships. Her research interests are Indonesian foreign policy, ASEAN, Asian regionalism, Indonesia-Australia relations, and Asia-Europe relations. Evi's publications include Southeast Asians and the Asia-Europe Meeting (ASEM): State's interests and institution's longevity (ISEAS Singapore 2014), "The Trump Presidency and Indonesia" (Contemporary Southeast Asia, April 2017), "The Impact of the EU Crisis on EU-ASEAN Relations" (Geopolitics, History, and International Relations, 2014).

Svetlana Glinkina

Doctor in Economics, Professor, Head of the Academic Department of International Economic and Political Studies, Institute of Economics, Russian Academy of Sciences, Head of General Economic Theory chair, Moscow School of Economics, M.V. Lomonosov Moscow State University. Education: Moscow State Institute of International Relations, International Journalism, 1977 Graduated with honors Semester study at Budapest Economic Institute, Hungary Post-graduate course at the Institute for International Economic and Political Studies, Russian Academy of Sciences, Moscow 3-month-long post-graduate course at the Co-operative Institute, Budapest, Hungary Candidate of Sciences (Economics), 1981 Doctor of Sciences (Economics), 1999 Title of Professor conferred in 3-month IREX scholarship at the American University, Washington, D.C. with the project on Shadow

China: BRI o el nuevo camino de la seda

---

Economy and Organized Crime in Russia April 1995–March 1997 – grant of McArthur Foundation for the project on Organized Crime Study Centers in Russia (economist of the project). Research Fields: Theory and practice of system transformation; International integration theory and practice; Socioeconomic and political development of post-socialist countries; Informal economy and corruption; Current condition and prospects of BRICS.

Juan González García

Doctor en Ciencias Económicas por el Instituto Politécnico Nacional. Maestro en Derecho Económico y Licenciado en Economía por la Universidad Autónoma Metropolitana. Se ha desempeñado como Director de la Facultad de Economía de la Universidad de Colima en el Periodo 2004-2008; Presidente de la Académica de Investigación de 2000 a 2004; Técnico del CENEVAL de 2004 a 2008; Miembro del Consejo Consultivo de la ANIDIE. Ha publicado cerca de 70 investigaciones en la modalidad de artículos, capítulos de libros y en revistas científicas arbitradas de circulación nacional e internacional. Ha coordinado tres libros sobre Economía Mexicana y la Cuenca del Pacífico. Entre sus líneas de investigación destacan: Las relaciones económicas internacionales con énfasis en la Cuenca del Pacífico y el Desarrollo Económico Comparado entre México y la República Popular China. Actualmente es Coordinador del Claustro Económico de la Universidad de Colima.

Ana Teresa Gutiérrez del Cid

Profesora Investigadora del Área de Política internacional Departamento de Política y Cultura de la Universidad Autónoma Metropolitana-Xochimilco. Doctora en Relaciones Internacionales por la UNAM. Es miembro del Sistema Nacional de Investigadores y de la Comisión Dictaminadora de Relaciones Internacionales de la Facultad de Ciencias Políticas y Sociales, UNAM. Autora de artículos y diversas publicaciones sobre relaciones internacionales.

Sebastián Herreros

Oficial de Asuntos Económicos de la División de Comercio Internacional e Integración de la Comisión Económica para América Latina y el Caribe (CEPAL). Previamente se desempeñó durante 13 años en la Dirección General de Relaciones Económicas Internacionales del Ministerio de Relaciones Exteriores de Chile, incluyendo un período de 5 años como Consejero en la Misión de Chile ante la Organización Mundial del Comercio en Ginebra. Ingeniero Comercial de la Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile (1994), Master of Science en Economía Política Internacional, London School of Economics and Political Science (1999). Autor de varios artículos y capítulos de libros sobre el sistema multilateral de comercio, política comercial, e integración económica latinoamericana. Ha impartido clases en el Instituto de Estudios Internacionales y es Magister en Gestión y Políticas Públicas de la Universidad de Chile.

Badar Alam Iqbal

School of economics and finance Monarch University Zug. Ex-Fulbright Visiting Professor, began his career in 1978, as an Academician in various capacities and stature, such as, Lecture during 1978 to 1986, Reader during 1986 to 1998, Professor since July 1998; Dean during March 17, 2006 to July 16, 2008, in the Faculty of Commerce, and Officiated as Vice Chancellor during December 23 to 26, 2007, and from February 2, to February 6, 2008 and presently working as Full Professor in the Department of Commerce, Aligarh Muslim University, India. Prof. Iqbal was Member of University Court (Highest Body) and University's Executive Council (Syndicate) for two years i.e. between March 2006 and March 2008. He was also the Member of Academic Council of the University. In 2010 he again has become a Member of University Court. In September 2011, Prof. Iqbal has been invited by SAARC Chamber of Commerce and Industry to speak on SAFTA at SAARC Business Leaders Conclave at Katmandu, Nepal.

Jabin T. Jacob

Fellow, Institute of Chinese Studies & Associate Editor, China Report. Fellow (Associate Professor) at the Institute of Chinese Studies, Delhi. He was previously Assistant Director of the Institute from 2011 to 2016. He holds a PhD in Chinese Studies from the School of International Studies, Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi and has spent time as a student and researcher in Taiwan, France and Singapore. Jacob's research interests include China-South Asia relations, Indian and Chinese foreign policies in their near neighbourhood, Sino-Indian border areas, and centre-province relations in China. Jacob is co-editor of a book each on India's foreign policy and India-China relations.

Sun Jie

Member of the Institute of World Economy and Politics at the Chinese Academy of Social Sciences (CASS). Senior Fellow of the Institute of World Economics and Politics; Deputy President of the Academic Committee of the Institute of World Economics and Politics; Member of the Academic Committee of the Chinese Academy of Social Sciences; Managing Editor, The Journal of World Economy, Great Wall Scholar of the Chinese Academy of Social Sciences; Visiting Scholar in the University of Illinois at Urbana/Champaign, the U.S.A. Visiting Research Fellow in the Institute of Developing Economies, Japan. Field of expertise: Monetary Economic, International Money and Finance, Corporate Finance.

China: BRI o el nuevo camino de la seda

---

Lin Minwang

Associate Professor from the Institute of International Studies, Fudan University, Deputy Director of the Center for South Asia Study, Fudan University. He graduated with the doctoral degree from China Foreign Affairs University, 2008. He worked as second secretary in China's Embassy in India (New Delhi) from 2013-2014. His research interest falls into two general areas: International Relations in South Asia, especially on sino-india relations; and IR theory.

Carlos Juan Moneta

Experto argentino en economía y política, docente en la Universidad Nacional de Tres de Febrero. Es doctor en Relaciones Internacionales y en Ciencias Sociales. Fue Secretario Permanente del Sistema Económico Latinoamericano y del Caribe (SELA). Más tarde sería el fundador y coordinador de REDEALAP "Red Iberoamericana de Estudios de Asia del Pacífico". Ha participado activamente en las Cumbres Iberoamericanas tratando el modelo económico latinoamericano. Asimismo, ha sido miembro del Grupo de Redacción de las Bases de la Carta Cultural Iberoamericana, en El Escorial, (Madrid, mayo de 2005). Algunas obras del autor: La tentación pragmática China-Argentina / América Latina. Lo actual, lo próximo y lo distante; Escenarios de integración. Sudeste Asiático-América del Sur. Hacia la construcción de vínculos estratégicos.

Sayed Mahdi Munadi

Former Researcher at Center for Strategic Studies, MFA, Afghanistan; Current Second Secretary of the Embassy of I.R of Afghanistan in Beijing, China. He joined the Ministry of Foreign Affairs as a member of CSS in 2013. Mr. Munadi holds a BA and an MA in Politics and International Relations from Kabul University. Mr. Munadi is the author of several research and analytic works with particular focus on Afghanistan's regional integration which have been published in academic journals and as book-chapters. He has also translated a book into Dari from English titled: 'Towards a More Cooperative South Asia'. In addition, he has presented his work at various national and international conferences. He is also a university lecturer currently teaching modules on Principles of International Relations at a number of private Afghan universities in Kabul.

Pulin B. Nayak

Profesor del Departamento de Economía de la Universidad de Delhi, India. Su campo de investigación se centra en temas relacionados con la Economía Política y Teoría Económica.

Arturo Oropeza Casas

Abogado por el Instituto Tecnológico Autónomo de México (ITAM), Maestro en Derecho Económico Internacional por la Universidad de Stanford y Asociado Extranjero en King & Spalding.

Arturo Oropeza García

Doctor en Derecho por la Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México (UNAM), e Investigador del Instituto de Investigaciones Jurídicas de la (IIJ, UNAM). Vicepresidente del Instituto para el Desarrollo Industrial y el Crecimiento Económico (IDIC). Es Investigador Nacional del Sistema Nacional de Investigadores (SNI). Árbitro de Solución de Controversias por parte de Brasil dentro del mecanismo del Mercosur. Especialista en temas globales, de integración y comercio internacional. Autor y Coordinador de más de 25 obras en la materia, con especialidad en los temas de Asia del este, China y Latinoamérica. Conferencista y profesor invitado en diversas Universidades de América del Norte, Asia, Latinoamérica, Europa y África. Articulista en diversos periódicos y revistas y miembro del Consejo Mexicano de Asuntos Internacionales (COMEXI).

Xu Shicheng

Profesor-investigador titular y tutor del doctorado del Instituto de América Latina (IAL), anexo a la Academia de Ciencias Sociales de China, vice-director del IAL durante 1985-1995, actual vice-presidente del Comité Académico del IAL, vicepresidente de la Asociación China de Estudios Latinoamericanos y miembro del Consejo de Asesores de la Biblioteca Nacional de China. Xu Shicheng, cursó sus estudios en la Universidad de la Habana, y luego estudió en la Escuela de Letras e Historia de la Universidad de la Habana, Cuba. Ha visitado Argentina, Brasil, Colombia, Cuba, Chile, México, Perú, Venezuela, España, EE.UU., Rusia como profesor visitante. Autor de numerosos libros como: Cuba (2003), Confrontación: Fidel Castro vs. los Presidentes de los EE.UU. (1999), Historia de Relaciones entre los EE.UU. y América Latina (1993), Historia de las Relaciones Internacionales de América Latina (1995), El Hegemonismo Imperial y América Latina (2002), Los Mexicanos siempre adelante (1997), México (2000), Las Reformas Políticas y Económicas y el Cambio del Modelo Político y Económico de México (2004); La Política de América Latina (2006). Fue traductor principal de Los Documentos de Simón Bolívar (1984) y la Antología de Poemas y Ensayos de Jose Marti (1995).

Nikolay Shkolyar

Consejero en Asuntos Económicos de la Embajada de Rusia en México. Se desempeñó como Coordinador del Departamento de Planificación y Regulación Macroeconómica Universidad de la Amistad de los Pueblos de Rusia, Moscú. Fue Subjefe de la Delegación Comercial de la Federación de Rusia en España.

China: BRI o el nuevo camino de la seda

---

Kemel Toktomushev

Research Fellow, Institute of Public Policy and Administration, University of Central Asia, Kyrgyz Republic. Graduated, PhD in Politics and International Relations, University of Exeter, UK. 2015. Doctoral Research: "The Regime Security and Kyrgyz Foreign Policy". MSc in International Relations, London School of Economics and Political Science, London, UK. BA in International and Comparative Politics, American University of Central Asia, Bishkek, Kyrgyz Republic. Kemel served as the Director of Communications and Public Relations at the American University of Central Asia and has also worked at the UNDP and Tolerance International UK. Kemel's research interests include regime security and the foreign policy of Central Asian states and the strengthening of research capacity and evidence-based policymaking in Afghanistan and Central Asia. His book, "Kyrgyzstan: Regime Security and Foreign Policy" was published by Routledge and is based on his PhD dissertation completed at the University of Exeter. Over the past 5 years, he has worked as an Associate Professor at the American University of Central Asia and as a Teaching and Research Fellow at the OSCE Academy in Bishkek.

Eduardo Tzili-Apango

Profesor-investigador de tiempo completo en el Departamento de Política y Cultura de la Universidad Autónoma Metropolitana Unidad Xochimilco. Analista de las relaciones internacionales de China, relaciones China-América Latina, China y los bienes públicos globales, dinámica del Asia-Pacífico, China en las instituciones internacionales, China y Asia Central (Ruta de la Seda y Ruta de la Seda Marítima).

Janaka Wijayasiri

Research Fellow and Head of International Economic Policy research at Institute of Policy Studies IPS, Sri Lanka. Since joining the IPS in 1999, his areas of research interest have been primarily related to trade issues at the bilateral, regional and multilateral levels. These include issues of policy significance to Sri Lanka in areas covering bilateral and regional preferential trade initiatives, multilateral negotiations under the World Trade Organization (WTO) and issues related to the textile and garment, tea and spice industries in Sri Lanka. He has been part of Sri Lanka's official delegation representing the academia at regional forums such as Bay of Bengal Initiative for Multi-Sectoral Technical and Economic Cooperation (BIMSTEC) and the Indian Ocean Rim Association for Regional Cooperation (IOR-ARC). He has also participated in various bilateral trade negotiations with other countries which Sri Lanka currently seeking agreements with. He has a number of publications to his name which have appeared as articles and chapters in both journal and book publications. He is a member of the Editorial Board of Journal of Indian Ocean Rim Studies (JIORS). Janaka Wijayasiri holds a BA in Economics with Development Studies from the University of Sussex, UK and an MA in Economics of Development from the Institute of Social Studies, the Netherlands, and PhD from Monash University, Australia. He has also received training in GTAP (Global Trade Analysis Project) from the Center for Global Trade Analysis, Purdue University, Canada.

Chen Xiaochen

Director of International Studies Department of Chongyang Institute for Financial Studies at Renmin University of China (RDCY). Master in International Relations. Graduate from School of International Studies, Peking University 3 years working experience as journalist of China Business News & int'l traveller will develop a think tank affiliated to China Business. Specialties: International relations, strategy, climate change, reporting.

Li Xixia

Master of Laws (Juris Doctor) and Master Degree in English Language, is Assistant Professor at the Institute of International Law Chinese Academy of Social Sciences and Deputy Director of the Editorial Board of Chinese Review of International Law. She majors in labour standards, social security law and women's social rights law. Li Xixia's major publications include the followings: Labor Standards in Free Trade Agreement; A New Understanding of the Rule of Law: A Comparative Law Analysis, The Reform of Social Insurance in China and the Development of Legal Systems.

Dongsheng Zang

Associate Professor of Law, Director of Asian Law Center, University of Washington School of Law. Director, Graduate Program in Asian and Comparative Law. Director, Graduate Program in Global Business Law Associate Professor of Law. His academic interests include international trade Law, and comparative study of Chinese Law, with a focus on the role of Law and state in response to social crises in the social transformation in China. He holds an S.J.D. and LL.M. from Harvard Law School, in addition to his LL.M. from Renmin University (Beijing) and LL.B. from Beijing College of Economics. His doctoral dissertation, One-way Transparency: The Establishment of the Rule-based International Trade Order and the Predicament of Its Jurisprudence, was awarded the 2004 Yong K. Kim '95 prize. He was a research fellow at the East Asia Legal Studies at Harvard Law School during the 2004-05 academic year.