

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Many people helped make this book possible. First and foremost, acknowledgments go out to Richard A. Epstein for his critiques of Chapter One; José M. Gabilondo for his edits to Chapter Two; Roger B. Myerson for his advice with Chapter Three. Among the civil law scholars who read the manuscript and discussed it with us, are Carla Huerta Ochoa, Félix Huanca Ayaviri, Fernando Betancourt Serna, Francisco Tortolero Cervantes, Josep Cañabate Pérez, Juan Pablo Pampillo Baliño, Maximiliano Marzetti and Óscar Cruz Barney. In particular, we learned much from the presenters and participants at the dual meets between the University of California, Berkeley, School of Law and the Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México, Instituto de Investigaciones Jurídicas, especially Robert D. Cooter and Kenneth Ayotte who commented on our papers; and, additionally, at the Rome meeting of the European Association of Law and Economics, especially Giuseppe Dari-Mattiacci. We end with acknowledgments to our mentors Francis H. Buckley and Joel Watson for their encouragement and support through so many years.
