

Authors

ALI RIDHA

Is a senior lecturer at the School of International Studies, Universiti Utara Malaysia. He received his PhD from China Foreign Affairs University. His current research focuses on regional integration with greater focus on China-ASEAN relations.

AMBASHI, MASAHIITO

Is a Research Fellow at the Economic Research Institute for ASEAN and East Asia (ERIA) and Consulting Fellow at the Research Institute of Economy, Trade and Industry (RIETI). He has experience working for ASEAN policy as well as other domestic industrial and energy policies at the Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry (METI) of Japan. He received his PhD in Economics from the University of Essex.

AROONPIPAT, SUNIDA

Is an Associate Professor at Thammasat University in Thailand. She received her Ph.D. from University of Tsukuba (Japan) and other Master Degrees from Chulalongkorn University, University of Cambridge and the London School of Economics and Political Science. She used to work as a trade technical officer at the Thai Ministry of Commerce. Her research interests cover the political economy of ASEAN members, ASEAN's regionalism and institutional configuration. Her recent publication includes the dispute settlement mechanism of ASEAN and the role of local government in implementing AEC.

ARUGAY, ARIES A.

Professor of Political Science and University Scientist in the University of the Philippines in Diliman. He is also Editor-in-Chief of Asian Politics & Policy and has been a track-two diplomacy practitioner through the ASEAN-Institutes of Strategic and International Studies network. He obtained his PhD in Political Science from Georgia State University (United States) in 2014 as a Fulbright Fellow. In 2020, he was awarded Outstanding Young Scientist in Political Science by the National Academy of Science and Technology of the Philippines.

CHOIRUZZAD, SHOFWAN AL BANNA

Assistant Professor at the Department of International Relations, Universitas Indonesia. He also serves as the Executive Secretary of the university's ASEAN Studies Center. His research interest is on the political economy of multiscalar entanglements, which includes issues such as regionalism and global-local governance, palm oil political-economy, sustainability standards, postcolonial foreign policy, and anthropocentrization. His works have been published in various academic journals, including Asia Europe Journal, Asian Politics and Policy, Asian Perspective, Contemporary Southeast Asia, Forest Policy and Economics, Indonesia, IKAT, and Global. He also wrote several books on ASEAN.

DARWINDA, SITI

Is a Senior Lecturer at the School of International Studies, Universiti Utara Malaysia, Kedah, Malaysia. She received her Ph.D. from the University of Melbourne, Australia. Her current research focuses on leadership, ASEAN, comparative regional integration and non-traditional security with particular focus on cybersecurity and human security issues.

AUTHORS

FITRIANI, EVI

She is a Professor of International Relations in the Faculty of Social and Political Sciences, Universitas Indonesia. She was Head of the Department from October 2012 to 31 December 2016. She is co-founder of the University's Master Program of European Studies as well as the ASEAN Study Center of FISIP UI. She is also the Indonesian Country Coordinator of the Network of East Asian Think-tanks (NEAT). She obtained her PhD from the Australian National University (ANU) in 2011 on Political Sciences and International Relations. She was educated and trained in international relations in Indonesia, UK, and USA, as well as in Japan, Sweden, the Netherlands, and Hungary. Over the last 25 years, she has involved in international collaborative research or projects and obtained more than 13 international awards or scholarships. Her research interests are Indonesian foreign policy, ASEAN, Asian regionalism, Indonesia-Australia relations, and Asia-Europe relations.

HAP, PHALTHY

Dr. Phalthy Hap has become the Director of the Graduate Program of the Royal University of Law and Economics (RULE) of Phnom Penh since late May 2017. He obtained the Master of Laws and Doctor of Laws degree from Nagoya University, Japan. His specialized area is Land Law. Dr. Hap has been the leader of the working group that has collaborated with JICA on Japanese Technical Cooperation for the Legal and Judicial Development Project (phase 4) since August 2012 to March 2017 and he has been a member of the working group for Sample Form for phase 5 which started from 2017 to 2022. He also plays a crucial role in the Internal Quality Assurance Committee for RULE in order to write the self-assessment report for a pilot assessment conducted by the Accreditation Committee of Cambodia (ACC) in late 2015. He has also served as an assessor for ACC since 2016. More remarkably, Dr. Hap has worked involved with many international institutions on research and quality assurance, such as Korea Legislation Research Institute (ALIN) and ASEAN University Network (AUN). He has been teaching Civil Law, Property Law, Land Law, Business Law, and Research Methodology.

AUTHORS

HARO NAVEJAS, FRANCISCO JAVIER

Received his Ph.D. in Transpacific Relations from the University of Colima. He is a full professor at the School of Economics at the University of Colima. He is a member of the National System of Researchers. His research interests include the People's Republic of China and the Republic of China (Taiwan). He also has a vast experience in contemporary issues of India. His publications include: Historia de las Relaciones Internacionales de México, vol. 6 Asia, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, co-authored with Juan José Ramírez Bonilla and José Luis León Manríquez; and China y su entorno geopolítico, El Colegio de México, in press, co-authored with Juan José Ramírez Bonilla.

HASTIADI FAISAL, FITHRA

Fithra obtained his BA in Economics from the University of Indonesia. During his BA, he worked as a teaching assistant in the University of Indonesia at the Department of Economics, before he continued his study at Keio University, Japan, from where he got his MA degree. He then earned his PhD degree from Waseda University, Japan. He has published a number of articles at reputable journals and Books. Trade Strategy in East Asia, Globalization, Productivity and Production Networks in ASEAN are some of his widely acknowledged books, published under Palgrav Mcmillan. He shared a significant contribution for ASEAN 2030 study while he was working as a research associate at Asian Development Bank Institute (ADBI) in Tokyo back in 2011. He also served as a senior researcher at the National Economic Council where he gives advices for the President of Indonesia from 2012 to 2013. In 2020 he served as senior advisor and spokesperson for The Minister of Trade Republic of Indonesia. Currently, he is serving as The Executive Director of Next Policy, a national research think tank based in Depok.

AUTHORS

HERLIANA

Is an Associate Professor at the Faculty of Law of the Gadjah Mada University of Indonesia as well as the Vice Dean of Finance, Asset and Human Resources. Herliana earned a PhD degree from the University of Washington under DIKTI-Fulbright scholarship, a Master's degree in Commercial Law from the University of Melbourne, School of Law, under the Australian Development Scholarship and a Bachelor's degree in Law from the Gadjah Mada University, with a Sumitomo Bank scholarship. Herliana's teaching and research interests include: Civil Law, Civil Procedure, alternative dispute resolution, and arbitration. She has done extensive research in those fields in Indonesia, the US, Korea and Japan under various fellowship programs.

HERREROS, SEBASTIÁN

Economic Affairs Officer of the International Trade and Integration Division of the Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean (ECLAC). Commercial Engineer by the Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile. Master of Science in International Political Economy by the London School of Economics and Political Science (UK). Since 2009 he has been an Economic Affairs Officer in the International Trade and Integration Division of the Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean (ECLAC). He previously served for thirteen years in the General Economic Directorate of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Chile, including five years as Counselor in the Chilean Mission to the World Trade Organization in Geneva. Since 2011, he has taught the course on Topics of International Economics in the Master in Management and Public Policy of the Department of Industrial Engineering of the University of Chile. He is the author of several articles and book chapters on regional economic integration, trade and investment agreements, and economic relations between Latin America and Asia.

IWASAKI, FUSANORI

Is a Senior Research Associate and Director for Policy Research at the Economic Research Institute for ASEAN and East Asia (ERIA) where he works for economic integration and industrial and economic development in East Asia. He is also an Adjunct Researcher of the Research Institute of Automotive and Parts Industries at the Waseda University in Japan. He received his Master Degree of Political Studies from the Kyoto University in Japan.

AUTHORS

JULAY, ABDUL HAI BIN

Abdul Hai is a lecturer at Universiti Brunei Darussalam. He holds a BA (Hons) in Brunei Studies from the Universiti Brunei Darussalam and a MA in International Relations from the International University of Japan. His current research interests focus on environmental civic culture, ASEAN, and Brunei international relations/foreign policy. He recently completed chapters on Brunei-DPRK relations (with Mikio Oishi), an article on the Development of Sub-Regional Institutions in Southeast Asia: The case of BIMP-EAGA (with Hafizh Hashim), and has contributed a chapter on youth and volunteerism in relation to youth-led NGO's in Brunei (with Mazidah Mohamad) for the forthcoming Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Brunei. He also published several articles on Brunei international relations with Stephen C. Druce.

NURLIANA, KAMARUDDIN

Dr. Kamaruddin is Senior Lecturer and Deputy Executive Director (Academic) at the Asia-Europe Institute (AEI) of the University of Malaya.

LIM, TAI WEI

Associate Professor in Soka University and Senior Research Fellow Adjunct National University of Singapore East Asian Institute. He is an area studies specialist, a historian and an East Asian expert. He researches on North-east and Southeast Asia, including international relations (IR), international political economy (IPE), and political science (PS). He teaches courses in international business, management, history and international political economy

LINH, LE THUY

Ms. Le Thi Thuy Linh is currently a researcher at the Center for Regional and Foreign Policy Studies, and coordinator at the ASEAN Center Studies, of the Institute for Foreign Policy and Strategic Studies (IFPSS) of the Diplomatic Academy of Vietnam (DAV), a leading think-tank on public affairs in Vietnam. Her work at the Institute includes providing consultation and policy recommendations on ASEAN and Vietnam's security policies towards regional security frameworks and frequently contributed to several newspapers and magazines in Vietnam. She obtained her MPA from Ritsumeikan University, Japan and attended multiple training courses organized by Pacific Forum, Daniel K. Inouye Asia-Pacific Center for Security Studies, Stimson Center.

AUTHORS

MONETA, CARLOS

Argentinian, Master and PhD level studies related to International Relations and Asia-Pacific at the College of Mexico, University of Pennsylvania, New York University and Central University of Venezuela-University of Paris III. Permanent Secretary of the Latin American Economic System (LAES) 1995-1999. Fellow at the United Nations Institute for Training and Research (UNITAR). He has been a consultant for the Latin American Integration Association, LAES, UNESCO and IDB, as well as a visiting professor at the University of Paris III (France); Stanford and UCLA (USA) and UIBE (China). He organized and managed the Network of Latin American Studies on Asia-Pacific, 1997-2008. He gave courses and conferences in Latin America, the European Union, USA, the PR China, India and other Asian countries. He has participated as author, co-author, editor and with chapters in more than 30 books on development and external relations of Asian countries and their relations with Latin America. Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary (1995-2000). He currently heads the Master's Degree in Economics and Business with Asia-Pacific and India (UNTREF) in his country.

NISHIMURA, HIDETOSHI

Is the President of the Economic Research Institute for ASEAN and East Asia (ERIA), Visiting Professor of Waseda University, Japan, and Honorary Professor of Guanxi University, China. He has a great experience at working for policy making on international trade, economic integration and development at the Ministry of Economy Trade and Industry (METI), Japan. He received his Master Degree of Economics from the Yale University at the US.

AUTHORS

OMARA, ANDY

S.H.(UGM); MPub&IntLaw (Univ. of Melbourne); Ph.D. (Univ. of Washington). Is an Associate Professor of Constitutional Law at Gadjah Mada University (UGM) School of Law, Yogyakarta, Indonesia. His primary research areas are Indonesian Constitutional Law, Judicial review, The Indonesian Judiciary, Comparative Constitutional Law. His recent publications include: The Functions of the 1945 Constitutional Preamble, Mimbar Hukum law Journal Vol 31 No 1 Feb 2019; The Indonesian Constitutional Court and The Democratic Institution in Judicial Review, Constitutional Review Journal Vol. 3 No. 2 2017; Interpreting the Indonesian Constitutional Court Approach in Conducting Judicial Review on Cases Related to Economic and Social Rights. Indonesian Law Review Vol 7 no 2 2017; The Constitutionalization of the Budget for Education and Its Judicial Enforcement in Indonesia, Constitutional Review Journal, Vol 2 No 2 2016.

OROPEZA GARCÍA, ARTURO

Mexican academic specialized in International Economic Law, Comparative Law, and Regional Integration Systems. He graduated PHD with honors from the Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México (UNAM). Mr. Oropeza has appeared as an arbitrator in Mercosur dispute resolutions panels appointed by Brazil. He also has lectured at diverse universities and institutions around the world including China, Asia, Latin America, Europe and Africa. He has participated in more than 30 publications regarding legal and economic impact in globalization, especially in the regions of Latin America, North America, East Asia and China.

PATH, KOSAL

Dr. Kosal Path is an Associate Professor at Brooklyn College, The City University of New York. He received his doctoral degree in International Relations from the University of Southern California in 2008. He is the author of Vietnam's Strategic Thinking during the Third Indochina War (University of Wisconsin Press, 2020). His current research focuses on Cambodia's relations with Vietnam and China.

AUTHORS

PLUMMER, MICHAEL

Has been Director of SAIS Europe since 2014. A SAIS Professor of International Economics since 2001 and the Eni Professor of Economics at Johns Hopkins University since 2008, he was Head of the Development Division of the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) in Paris from 2010 to 2012; an associate professor at Brandeis University (1992-2001); and former Editor-in-Chief of the Journal of Asian Economics (Elsevier). He was president of the American Committee on Asian Economic Studies (ACAES) from 2008 until 2015.

PRASIRTSUK, KITTI

Is Professor of Political Science at Thammasat University in Thailand. His work experiences include Vice Rector for International Affairs and Director at the Institute of East Studies at the same university. He is currently advisory committee for the Asia Center under Japan Foundation, and committee of the International Studies Center at the Thai Ministry of Foreign Affairs. Earning a M.A. from Keio University (Japan) and a Ph.D. from UC Berkeley, his recent publications include Japan-ASEAN relations and U.S.-Thailand alliance.

SAN, OAK SOE

Lecturer, Department of International Relations, University of Monywa. She received her BA Hons: (International Relations) in 2004, MA in 2006, Master of Research in 2008 and a PhD in 2013. She started her teaching career at University of Yangon in 2012 and later taught at Yadanabon University about one and a half year. Currently she teaches a course on Geopolitics in International Relations and International Relations Theories and United Nations. She was a Visiting Research Fellow at the Institute for Advanced Studies on Asia of the University of Tokyo which was sponsored by Open Society Foundations' Civil Society Scholar Awards (CSSA) 2014-2015. She also participated in International Visitor's Leadership Program (IVLP) 2016: Law of the Sea & Maritime Security Program sponsored by the State Department of United States.

AUTHORS

SARAN, PREETI

Holds a B.A. (Honours) degree and Master of Arts degree in English from the Lady Shri Ram College for Women, University of Delhi. In her distinguished career with the Indian Foreign Service spread over 36 years, Ambassador Preeti Saran served in various capacities in India as well as in Indian Missions in Asia, Africa, Europe and the Americas. As Secretary to the Government of India with the rank of Vice Foreign Minister, she was responsible for policy formulation of India's relations with countries in East Asia, South East Asia, Canada and Latin America and the Caribbean region. Ambassador Saran has dealt with the entire range of issues pertaining to the Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (CESCR) during her long diplomatic career. During her assignment at Geneva, Ambassador Saran dealt extensively with UN Organizations and specialized agencies such as the WIPO, UNCTAD, South Centre and all economic matters on behalf of the Permanent Mission of India. She also represented India at the meetings of the Human Rights Commission. Ambassador Saran represented India as Sherpa and Leader of the Senior Official Meetings (SOM) at several multi-lateral events including the BRICS Summit, The Bay of Bengal Initiative for Multi-Sectoral Technical and Economic Cooperation (BIMSTEC) Summit, ASEAN-India Annual Summits, East Asia Summit, ASEAN Regional Forum and the Mekong-Ganga Cooperation mechanism. She was India's Ambassador to Vietnam and Consul General in Toronto, Canada. Her other overseas assignments include at the Indian Missions in Russia, Bangladesh, Egypt and Geneva.

SAYAVONG, VANXAY

Professor Sayavong is a researcher at the National Institute for Economic Research (NIER), Lao PDR and PhD candidate at the Graduate School of Economics, of the Waseda University in Japan. His primary research fields are macro modelling, economic development, asset poverty, productivity and technical efficiency, Belt and Road Initiative (BRI) and Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) in Laos.

AUTHORS

SEIN, CHAW CHAW

Has worked as Head of the International Relations Department, for more than ten years at the University of Yangon since 2006. She has been promoted to the post of Pro-Rector (Dean of Social Science) in 2021 of the Yangon University of Foreign Languages. She works as an advisor to the Union Civil Service. Chaw Chaw Sein obtained her PhD Degree in International Relations from University of Yangon in 2004 and her research and interests is on China-Myanmar relations. She has written a chapter in Myanmar Reintegrating into the International Community, World Scientific Publishing Co. Pte Ltd, 2016 with the title “Myanmar Foreign policy under New Government”, a chapter in Conflict in Myanmar, ISEAS publication, Singapore, 2016 with the title “Institutions in Myanmar’s 2015 election: The election commission, international agencies and the military”, a chapter in Values in Foreign Policy: Investigating Ideals and Interests, Rowman & Littlefield 2019 with the title “Values of Myanmar Foreign Policy”.

SINGH, JATSWAN

Associate Professor and Executive Director at the Asia-Europe Institute (AEI), University of Malaya. He is also the Director of Centre for ASEAN Regionalism University Malaya (CARUM). Prior to this, he was Head of the Department of International and Strategic Studies, of the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences. Dr. Jatswan’s areas of expertise are conflict resolution, strategic studies, foreign policy, comparative politics (contemporary Southeast Asia) and international relations (international organizations, international security, transnational actors, and human rights).

WENJUAN, NIE

Is an Associate Professor in the Institute of International Relations at China Foreign Affairs University. Her research and teaching interests lie in the field of international relations theory and Southeast Asian studies. Her publications appear in various journals, some of which are The Pacific Review, Contemporary Southeast Asia, World Economics and Politics, Journal of Contemporary Asia-Pacific Studies.

AUTHORS

YEAN, THAM SIEW

Professor Tham Siew Yean is an Emeritus Professor at the Universiti Kebangsaan of Malaysia and Visiting Senior Fellow at ISEAS-Yusof Ishak Institute, Singapore. She was formerly Director and Professor of International Trade at the Institute of Malaysian and International Studies (IKMAS), Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia. She has served as a consultant to national agencies in Malaysia (Ministry of International Trade and Industry (MITI) and Ministry of Higher Education); and international agencies, including the World Bank, Asian Development Bank, and Development Bank Institute. Her research interests cover trade in goods and services, including SMEs in e-commerce as well as foreign direct investment (FDI), and Belt and Road initiatives in the region. She has published extensively on trade-related issues in books and journals such as Journal of Contemporary Asia, Emerging Markets, Finance and Trade, Asian Economic Panel and Prague Economic Papers, besides co-editing several books published by international publishing houses. Recent publications include, China in Malaysia: State-Business Relations and the New Order of Investment Flows (Palgrave Macmillan, 2020); co-authored with Edmund Terence Gomez, Ran Li and Kee Cheok Cheong). She has a PhD in Economics from the University of Rochester, USA.