Una nota sobre documentación

Los documentos de los National Archives (NA), en Washington, D.C., en todos los casos forman parte del Record Group (RG) 59.

Algunos documentos de inteligencia de los National Security Archives no tienen números de expediente, y en esos casos los identifico como "documento sin registro".

El número de expediente del Joint Weeka (JW) de la Embajada siempre es 714,000, cifra que se cita de esta manera.

Antes de junio de 1944, los National Archives dieron a cada documento en sus expedientes decimales un número de identificación único después de su número decimal. Después de esa fecha, sólo se repite la del documento después del número decimal. Cito el último cuando difiere de la fecha real del documento y me refiero a su número específico cuando se cita en el documento original.
