

Comparative Media Law Journal

The Comparative Media Law Journal is a biannual publication devoted to the dissemination and international exchange of media law comparative studies. Papers published in the journal encompass the areas of broadcasting law and information technologies regulations, media in conflict, freedom of information, free speech and journalists law provisions. The journal includes bibliographic recommendations and legal analysis.

PDF Format:

www.bibliojuridica.org

Sections

- ARTICLES
- LEGAL ANALYSIS
- BIBLIOGRAPHIC
RECOMMENDATIONS

Board of Editors

Editor: Ernesto Villanueva.

Hugo Aznar (Spain); Ana Azurmendi (Spain); David Banisar (USA); Thomas Blanton (USA); Jorge Carpizo (Mexico); Helen Darbishire (USA); Kate Doyle (USA); Benjamín Fernández Bogado (Paraguay); Toby Mendel (UK); Salvador Nava (Mexico); José Perla Anaya (Peru); Monroe Price (UK); Doris Reniz

(Colombia); Miguel Julio Rodríguez Villafañe (Argentina); Herbert Strentz (USA); Adrian Ventura (Argentina).